

My wife and I do object to the changing of Wisconsin's present "No Call" law. We are both elderly and retired, and do appreciate not being disturbed at meal times, or at any other time, by calls that attempt to get us to buy items we are not in the least interested in buying. We do hope that any attempt to change the present law will be defeated. Thank you.